Church, Chapel and Village News

Number 66
Summer 2009

This issue has been funded by Llansilin Community Council

Dear Friends

I often think how privileged we are in many ways – to be living in this country, to name but one of many. Recently, I read in a magazine the following passage which I think all of us should consider.

"Privileges

If you woke up this morning with more health than illness, you are more blessed than the million who will not survive this week.

If you have food in the fridge, clothes on your back, a roof overhead and a place to sleep, you are richer than 75% of this world's people.

If you have money in the bank and your wallet and some spare change somewhere, you are among the top 8% of the world's wealthy.

If you can attend a church meeting without fear of harassment, arrest, torture or death you are more blessed than 3 billion other people in the world.

If you have never experienced the danger of battle, the loneliness of imprisonment, the agony of torture or the pangs of starvation, you are ahead of 500 million other people in the world.

If you can read this letter, you are more blessed than over 2 billion people in the world who cannot read at all".

Yes, indeed, we are privileged and our hearts ought to be full of thankfulness to the Lord for all the privileges of life.

God bless you,

Stanton Evans

EVENTS LEADING UP TO EASTER

During the weeks leading up to Lent the church remains undecorated without any flowers at the altar. Members attended a thought provoking Lent Course spread over several weeks and the Parish Room was the venue for a Lent Lunch when diners were served home made soup, cheese and biscuits, followed by tea and coffee.

EASTER WEEK

Easter Week started with a Palm Sunday Service. Palm crosses were handed out by the Reverend Margaret Robarts and Christine Williams. At the same service a framed picture of the late Eric Avery was dedicated. It will hang in the Ringing Chamber, in memory of Eric's long service as Captain of the Bell Ringers.

On Maundy Thursday a shared Communion Service was held at St Cedwyn's, followed on Good Friday by a Service of Devotions with both parishes taking an active part.

On Easter Sunday, for the Holy Communion Service at 9.00 am, the congregation of St Silin's was greeted with displays of daffodils and lilies – always a great joy after the Lent absence. Everyone attending was given a small Easter egg.

EASTER VESTRY MEETING

This annual meeting reports on the life of the church during the preceding twelve months. The Vicar's role has expanded now that the Reverend Stanton Evans has retired. There has been a full programme of services with a number of special occasions. The Family Services are very popular with much participation by the children and included a Christmas Party. Volunteers were thanked for enabling everything in the church to function so well. The Vicar's Warden, Mrs Christine Williams, has accepted the Vicar's invitation to continue in office and members reappointed Mrs Deborah Hill Trevor as People's Warden.

OUR NEW BISHOP

On Saturday, 25 April, the Reverend Gregory Cameron was enthroned as the new Bishop for the Diocese of St Asaph. Admission was by ticket only and the cathedral was full to capacity. St Silin's was represented by our Vicar and by Christine Williams, Esther Milner, Morfudd Williams and Marjorie Evans, with Peter and Ruth Morris from St Cedwyn's. The following day parishioners from all over the Montgomery Archdeaconry were invited to attend the morning service at St Mary's, Welshpool, where the new Bishop was making his first visitation. Again, the church was full to capacity with a congregation of over 500.

GWEINIDOGAETH BRO

Cawsom wanwyn braf iawn ar ôl trwch o eira Mis Chwefror. Dau gyfarfod o'r Gymdeithas Ddiwylliadol fu, sef Siôn Aled yn siarad am ei emynau a noson i ddathlu gwyl ein Nawdd Sant, Dewi, pryd cawsom fwyd blasus a siaradwr penigamp yn Aled Lloyd Davies.

Ar y Sul cyntaf ym Mis Mawrth cawsom wasanaeth arbennig yng ngofal y marched. Diolch i'r Parch Stanton Evans am ei drefnu.

Yn ystod Mis Mawrth collodd ein hardal ddau o gewri'r fro, sef Mrs M.M. Jones, Y Fodwen, a Mr J.W. Jones, Plas Moelfre. Bu Mrs Jones yn ffyddlon iawn i wasanaethau'r capeli, gwraig oedd bob amser yn barod i helpu mewn unrhyw ffordd y gallai ac roedd yn awdurdod ar wneud y coffi yn Noson Goffi Cymorth Cristnogol.

Un amryddawn oedd J.W. ( fel y gelwid yn lleol),roedd yn ffarmwr o fri, yn bwyllgorwr craff ac yn fardd gwlad penigamp. Roedd bob amser gyda syniadau blaengar ac ymarferol. Fe welwn eisiau'r ddau yn y gymdogaeth.

Springtime was beautiful after the snow in early February. Two meetings of the Welsh Literary Society were held early this year. Siôn Aled from Wrexham came to talk about his hymns in the February meeting and then we celebrated Saint David's Day with a meal and an excellent talk by Aled Lloyd Davies. The service during the first Sunday in March was taken by the ladies and it was organised by the Reverend Stanton Evans..

During March we lost two of the area's stalwarts, Mrs M.M. Jones, Y Fodwen, and Mr J.W. Jones, Moelfre Hall. During her lifetime Mrs Jones had been a keen and active participant in all the chapels. She was always ready to help in any way possible and she was an expert at organising and making the coffee for the Christian Aid Coffee Evening.

J.W. (as we all knew Mr. Jones) was an exceptionally versatile person. He was a keen farmer, an astute committee man and a country bard and always ready with forward thinking practical ideas. With their passing the community will feel the loss of both of them.

Llansilin Victorian Christmas Festival

Presentation Evening

In March an enjoyable Social Evening was held in the Memorial Hall to wind up the successful Llansilin Victorian Christmas Festival. Appetising refreshments were laid on and a raffle was held to cover the cost of the event. During the evening the proceeds of the different activities were distributed to the various organisations. Making the presentations was Alison Beeston (chair) assisted by Mary Morris (secretary).

Representatives from the organisations which received monies from the Festival

The first cheque from the successful Victorian Fair went to Ysgol Bro Cynllaith. The proceeds of the popular Old Tyme Music Hall were divided between the Llansilin Fountain Group, the Church, the Chapels and the Wales Air Ambulance. The latter also received the proceeds from Sheila Ashley's ingenious Victorian Quiz.

Christine Williams presents the cheque to the Air Ambulance representative, with Alison Beeston and Mary Morris looking on Christine Williams then took over on behalf of the Church presenting the monies from the Folk Concert also to the Wales Air Ambulance. She concluded the presentations with the proceeds from the Crown of Light which were split between the Severn Hospice and Hope House.

The Nesta Morgan Memorial Lecture

Llansilin Memorial Hall

Friday 22 May, 2009 at 7.30 pm

"The Family of Abram Wood"

by Lord Thomas of Gresford OBE QC

This is the story of the way in which the Gypsies saved Welsh Music, Harp and Dance in the 18th and 19th centuries. Lord Martin Thomas, who traces his ancestry to Abram Wood, tells how the descendants of this King of the Welsh Gypsies toured the valleys of the Dee, Severn, Mawddach, Vyrnwy, Ceiriog and Tanat and brought their music and dance - and their fortune telling and mysteries - to brighten the lives of the folk who lived there. They placed their talents before royalty - even Queen Victoria herself, at Pale Hall, Bala. They continued well into the 20th century and, through the work of the scholar, Dr Sampson of Liverpool University, preserved for ever the purest blend of the Romany language. The speaker will illustrate his talk by playing and singing to the harp.

Open to all (non-members £1.50)

This lecture is a tribute to the late Mrs Nesta Morgan, a founder of the Society and Vice-Chairman for many years.

Llansilin Local History Society meets about 10 times a year either for talks on local history (or wider) topics or for visits to places of interest. The season is from Easter to mid-September. The Society occasionally presents Prestige Lectures for the public: for example, on "Owain Glyndwr" by Professor G Davies from Oxford in 1998 and on "The Archaeology of Sycharth" by Mr Spencer Smith in 2003.

NEWS FROM YSGOL BRO CYNLLAITH

Eyes down: the school's PTA held a very successful Easter Bingo in the Hall on 27 March and we would like to thank everyone who supported the evening. Over £300 was raised for their funds.

Salmon: we had a lovely afternoon on 1 April walking to Tynewydd to release the salmon eggs that we had hatched in school. The project was in conjunction with the Environment Agency, who supplied all the equipment that the children needed, such as a tank and food.

Farmers' Market: once again we held a very successful Farmers' Market in the Hall on 2 April, with some traders selling out! The children once again had their own stall selling not only donated goods such as cakes and plants but also items that they had made themselves, thus raising more money for our school's new outdoor area that we hope to begin soon. The next market will be held on Friday, 10 July at 3 pm when we will be selling produce from our school garden. If anyone has spare plants or gardening equipment etc which they could donate, the children would be most grateful.

Urdd Camp: our years 5 and 6 spent a few days at the Urdd Camp at Llangrannog at the end of April, enjoying such pastimes as go-karting and trampolining.

First Prize: the whole school is very much looking forward to a visit from a professional storyteller, who will be coming into school for the day at the beginning of May. This was the First Prize in a National Competition and the winner was 7-year-old Angharad Jones. The judges all praised Angharad's entry, saying that it "stood out". Very well done, Angharad, we are all really proud of you!

Open Afternoon: the school will be holding an Open Afternoon on Wednesday, 17 June at 2 pm for any prospective parents who would like to come and have a look around and we would like to extend the invitation to all other villagers who would like to see what goes on here!

LLANSILIN SHOW AND SHEEPDOG TRIALS

Saturday, 29 August

Local Sheep Dog Trials and Family Barbecue

Monday, 31 August

Open Sheep Dog Trials, Horse Show. Produce Competitions, Children's Sports, Five a side Football

An added interest this year are 2 displays in the Church - one to celebrate the tercentenary of the poet Huw Morus plus an exhibition about "Tin Tabernacles" which will include information about the former Lloran Church near Llansilin. What is a Tin Tabernacle? Come and find out!

Show Craft Class - there is a competition for a Beanie Hat to a set pattern. This can be obtained from the Post Office in the Wesleyan Chapel (Tuesdays and Thursdays)

VILLAGE LUNCH FOR ALL

The village lunches will continue through the summer on the second Thursday of the month from 12 pm to 1.30 pm in the Parish Room and everyone is welcome. If you would like to raise some funds for your charity by helping, do call Pam Johnson on 01691 791345. We have raised over £100 for various good causes so far this year.

DAFFODILS

CHURCH GATE STALLS

Don't forget the Church Gate Stalls and the chance to buy good wholesome cooking, garden plants and produce to help raise funds for the day-to-day upkeep of the church.

First Saturday in the month from 10 am to 11.30 am

6 June    4 July    1 August

5 September    3 October

EDUCATION CLASSES

There is another Willow Garden Feature course in the Hall on 14th November, 10.00 - 3.30 pm. Are there any other community classes people would like? Day/evening classes can be arranged if there is enough local support. Contact Shirley on 0845 4086 535 or email shirley.davies@coleg-powys.ac.uk

PERCUSSION UNLIMITED

in St Silin's Church

Saturday, 20 June at 7.30 pm

Come and be surprised – ten young people, from the age of 14, are coming to St Silin's, bringing a range of percussion instruments and will be playing a surprisingly wide repertoire. They are called "Percussion Unlimited" and are under the leadership of Brian Stone. They are very versatile and the audience is definitely in for a new experience. They have been invited to play in the Shrewsbury Arts Festival in June and in 2010 they are jetting off to Australia for a concert tour. This is an event not to be missed!

Admission is free for children (accompanied) and £5.00 for adults

LLANSILIN
MEMORIAL HALL

(Registered Charity No. 216682)

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE
Tuesday 2 June 2009 at 7:30pm

NOTICE is hereby given that the ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of the MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE of the LLANSILIN MEMORIAL HALL AND INSTITUTE will be held in the Hall on Tuesday 2 June 2009 at 7:30 pm. All inhabitants of the area of benefit (i.e. Llansilin, Llangadwaladr, Moelfre, Cymdu, Cefn Canol and Rhiwlas) who are aged 18 years or over are entitled to attend and vote at the annual general meeting in the appointment of elected members (NB not representative members of community organisations) to serve on the hall management committee as trustees of the registered charity known as LLANSILIN MEMORIAL HALL. Existing elected committee members can be re-elected if they have not given notice of their non availability for re-election in writing to the Chairman no later than 29 May 2009. Please note that any nominations for new elected members must be given to the Chairman Mr. E.O.Evans, Cefn y Braich, Llansilin, in writing together with the written consent of the nominee no later than Friday 29 May 2009.

CHURCHYARD MAINTENANCE

The churchyard working party at St Silin's is desperate for new volunteers. Having had twelve years of a wonderful group, numbers are now sadly depleted. During that time the churchyard has been brought under control and is a pleasure to see and is accessible to the many people who come to tend family graves and visitors researching family history from headstone inscriptions. It is a peaceful haven of wildlife and a credit to those who have nobly come each week to work. We meet every Thursday evening at 6 pm and would warmly welcome anyone who would enjoy helping. It's not hard and we always break for a cup of tea and a chat.

LLANSILIN COMMUNITY COUNCIL

The March meeting was chaired by Cllr E O Evans, assisted by the clerk, H Hughes. The Chairman referred to the loss sustained by Cllr E T Jones on the death of his Mother and asked the clerk to convey members' condolences.

Planning applications in respect of change of use from agricultural land at Derwendeg Ucha and change of use at Salem Chapel to living accommodation were supported.

Members agreed to fund the summer edition of the Llansilin newsletter and also to renew membership of One Voice Wales. Donations were made to the Severn Hospice and the North Montgomeryshire Volunteer Bureau Car Scheme.

A communication from an officer of Powys Highways stated that a moratorium had been placed on traffic regulation orders, which included the provision of double yellow lines in Llansilin. Members were extremely concerned that, following a site inspection in August attended by community councillors, the officer concerned and two county councillors, all parties had agreed the provision and location of double yellow lines. Furthermore, the officer had given an assurance that this recommendation would be included in the agenda of the November Shire Highways Committee. This was not done and the reasons given were not deemed to be acceptable by members. The clerk was instructed to respond in the strongest possible terms, stressing the concern of councillors at the dilatory manner in which this project had been handled and seeking an assurance that, when the moratorium was lifted, the provision of double yellow lines in Llansilin be implemented at the earliest opportunity.

Other correspondence included information from the Welsh Assembly regarding borrowing by town and community councils and also Local Government partnership Scheme 2007/8, literature relating to television digital switch over was to be handed to the Over 60's Club. One Voice Wales re invitations to Buckingham Palace Garden Party – Cllr and Mrs E O Evans were nominated.

The following complaints were received: water on road adjacent to Bryn Celyn; vandalism in Llansilin – the clerk was asked to contact the police community officer requesting an increased presence in the area, particularly at night time.

Did you Know? In February, 1945 a Percival Proctor aeroplane crashed in poor visibility near Pentre Cefn. It was on a training mission and two aircraftmen were killed.
